any kind seemed to make my back ache and weary. Dizzy spells and headaches were frequent. I used two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, which I got at Uiley & Jones' Drug Store, and was cured. I haven't felt any need of kidney medicine since."

Albert H. Frink of New London who is a candidate on the state ticket of the socialist labor party was under suspicion by the Jewett City police of distributing seditious literature there Thursday night. Warning was sent from Jewett City to the local police with the result that when Mr. Frink drove through here in an automobile he was invited to come to police headquarters to explain what he was distributing. An examination showed that there was nothing in it to call for any attention from the police authorities. He left copies of his literature at police headquarters.

they have accomplished will never be-

To the Team Workers:
We are "over the top" in the campaign

RALLY SOCIALS FOR

CENTRAL BAPTIST SCHOOL
All departments of the Central Baptist Sunday school enjoyed pleasant social programmes Friday, with the af-and primary departments and the evening for the rest of the school. About 100 children, of whom the youngest was two months old, were present in the afternoon, enjoying a programme of games, followed by refreshments, under direction of Miss Alice Dean, superintendent and Mrs. A. F. Wyman, assistant in the primary department, and Mrs. C. Edward Smith, superintendent of the be-

At 6:15 the officers and teachers of the school had supper, sixty attending. Su-toastmaster and there were inspiring reand an address by Wallace I. Woodin, of Hartford, general secretary of the Connecticut Sunday School association.

The social for all members of the church and school came from 7:30 to 10 and was attended by about 250. The Sunday school orchestra, of ten pieces, directed by G. Fred Noyes, opened the programme, which included words of welcome from Superintendent Case, greetings from the pastor, an address by Mr. Woodin, rendered solos by Miss Helen Kilburn, the pastor's assistant and sleight of hand by William J. Banfield. The orchestra played a number of selections during the social hour which closed the evening while refreshments were served.

All were especially invited to the Sun-
